

Arts Tasmania News

Lynne Stacpoole Caring for Your Collection 2014

December 2013

The Premier and Minister for the Arts, the Hon. Lara Giddings MP has announced the three recipients of the Lynne Stacpoole Caring for Your Collection Grant Program for 2014. Grants totalling $3 000 have been awarded to three groups across the state.

The Lynne Stacpoole Caring for Your Collection Grant Program has been funded through the generosity of the current Chair of the Tasmanian Arts Advisory Board's Small Museums and Collections Panel, Lynne Stacpoole, who has donated her fee as a member of the Board specifically to enable this grants program.

1. FROM THE ASSESSMENT PANEL

The Small Museums and Collections Panel was pleased with the number of applications to the program, and the variety of projects contained within the applications.

2. LYNNE STACPOOLE CARING FOR YOUR COLLECTION GRANT PROGRAM 2014 RECIPIENTS

The Art Society of Tasmania Incorporated

$1 000

Purchase of storage units for historical documents, minutes and publications for the Lady Franklin Gallery.

Tasman Peninsula Historical Society

$1 000

Purchase of a five drawer horizontal plan cabinet.

West Coast Council

$1 000

Purchase of materials to create displays for garments for the Eric Thomas Galley Museum.

3. CONTACT US

ROVING CURATORS

Veronica Macno

Phone: 03 6777 2790

Mobile: 0400 082 036

Email: veronica.macno@arts.tas.gov.au

Melissa Smith

Phone: 03 6777 2789

Mobile: 0417 385 407

Email; melissa.smith@arts.tas.gov.au

Arts Tasmania

146 Elizabeth Street, Hobart, Tasmania, 7000

Level 1, Cornwall Square, 12-16 St John Street, Launceston, Tasmania, 7250

Phone: 03 6165 6666

Email: arts.tasmania@arts.tas.gov.au

Web: www.arts.tas.gov.au